WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING

Andrea was amazing! WOW! She spoke on the topic of LOVE and, while she was talking about the different kinds of love in the Bible, she wove relatable examples from her own life into her talk. Listening to her testimony and then reading her book afterwards was incredible. I've had several members comment to me that she was excellent! She's very sweet and down-to-earth. We would host her again in an instant!

"There are never too many stories about the messy side of motherhood and women who face mental and emotional challenges our mothers' generation didn't speak about. Andrea communicates with vulnerability and openness that can help others to heal shame and sense of not-enoughness."

SPEAKING TOPICS

NEWEST HOT TOPIC 2022!

Under Andrea's widely popular tagline and banner What Moms May Think But Never Say comes her newest speaking topic, 'Thank You For Your Unsolicited Parenting Advice.' How do we handle the critics in our lives or friends with best intentions who can't help but offer their own parental advice into our mothering? In this message Andrea shares hilarious anecdotes yet subtly leads us back to a place to navigate motherhood with fortitude, a fake smile, receiving a good word, and a whole lot of grace.

HEART SISTERS

In today's culture appearances has taken precedence. Social media platforms and profiles often scream "look at me" versus God's standard and desire for us to truly "see Him." As women, encouraging and supporting one another based on Biblical standards can yield fulfilling and rewarding fruit and relationships formed from the heart. In 'Heart Sisters' we dig deeper to identify God's standard versus man's measures of worth. During our time together we will seek to understand and embrace our uniqueness and individuality, seek to know and offer others grace, seek to form deeper and more meaningful relationships, and look to build and leave a legacy for the generations to come.

- LOVE LOUDER
- MARRIAGE MAINTENANCE
- FAITH OVER FEAR and more!

NEW BOOK RELEASE!

I QUIT THE FAMILY!

What Moms May Think But Never Say

$16.99

Most everyone longs to be the author of their life's story, to know its plot twists ahead of time, and certainly to be able to edit out its ugly parts. Andrea Holman is no different—in fact, her need to be in control only bolstered this desire. So, imagine her surprise in discovering that one of her most painful moments in motherhood was not only one she would never edit, but one she couldn't have written better herself! When Andrea's young son declared that he "quit the family," she came to the life-changing realization that after years of living through her story's twists and turns, including difficult pregnancies, raising children with special needs, and unresolved childhood trauma, she had already quit. That now-infamous day began a new chapter for the Holman family, one in which Andrea embraced the chaos, dug in deep to find her authentic self, and finally admitted she was never truly the author of her story. This church girl had forgotten that God was in control all along! In these heartfelt and hilarious stories Andrea shares her journey through the joys and trials of motherhood and faith, and you will, as she says, "laugh, cry, and maybe even pee a little." For any mom who has ever had an "I Quit the Family" moment, you will certainly find encouragement, hope, and a whole lotta love.

If the Events Manager attends the event, you will ultimately get two for the price of one. Not only does her presence free Andrea up to focus on ministry rather than book sales & set up, but the Events Manager has been in full-time ministry for over 20 years and has a wealth of wisdom, compassion, and knowledge to bring to the table . Her rich experiences makes her more than qualified to also meet one on one with audience members for prayer and for thoughtful discussion.

WHAT ABOUT TRANSPORTATION AND LODGING?

Andrea's passion is in humbly serving others. Please do not feel the need to "pamper" her. There are some general needs when air travel and hotel accommodations are necessary. Andrea prefers to travel with American Airlines and her hotel would be one with good standard accommodations and a safe environment.
